L'Arpeggiata's Circle of Friends

Commit yourself to contributing to expanding the outstanding reputation of an orchestra that is like no other!

Did you discover l'Arpeggiata one day and since then its music has captured your spirit?

Would you like to make the dream last a little longer and participate in the ensemble's activities?

Orfeo, l'Arpeggiata's Circle of Friends is just what you are looking for!

Newly created, Orfeo gathers together individuals who want to contribute to the advancement of the ensemble and invest their efforts in supporting their creative works and performances, their commitment to reach out to all audiences, recording their CDs; keeping the passion for Baroque eternal and to feel the increasingly intense thrill of adventure that Christina Pluhar and her artists offer you at each concert.

Orfeo allows you to follow l'Arpeggiata's activities exclusively and offers you a number of advantages.

Enter into the circle...

Founded by Christina Pluhar in 2000, l'Arpeggiata reunites artists from a myriad of musical backgrounds drawn from both sides of Europe and worldwide around programmes-projects.

Since its creation, l'Arpeggiata aims to explore the rich musical repertoire of little known Roman, Neapolitan and Spanish composers of premier baroque. The ensemble weaves the threads that bind instrumental improvisation guidelines with research on instrumentarium in the purest baroque tradition as well as the creation and staging of "events" concerts. It promotes the coming together of instrumental and vocal music with other baroque disciplines inseparable from their time, such as dance and theatre, and the openness towards diverse musical genres such as jazz and traditional music.

True invitations to the dream, l'Arpeggiata's programmes recapture the elements of surprise and the unexpected, mixed with genres and traditions, making each concert a unique experience.

L'Arpeggiata gives about fifty concerts a year and collaborates with supremely gifted soloists from both baroque art music (Philippe Jaroussky, Nuria Rial, Véronique Gens, Cyril Auvity, Emiliano Gonzales-Toro, Dominique Visse, João Fernandes...) and traditional music (Lucilla Galeazzi, Vincenzo Capezzuto, Ensemble 'Barbara Furtuna', Misia...) or other genres such as jazz or flamenco (Gianluigi Trovesi, Pepe Habichuela) and performs on stage since its creation in the most renowned festivals and prestigious theatres worldwide (Festival de Saint-Denis, Opéra de Bordeaux, Carnegie Hall New York, Concertgebouw Amsterdam...).

L'Arpeggiata pursues an ambitious sound recording approach by producing a recording every year that reflects the variety and originality of artistic direction led by Christina Pluhar. The ensemble is committed to making music accessible to as many people as possible through numerous educational and cultural activities.
